

The Wily Network
Clinical Scholar Coach Job Description
Full-Time, or 20 hours a week growing to full-time

About the Wily Network

The Wily Network works with promising college students who have experienced life challenges such as homelessness or foster care, or whose parents may be dealing with addiction, mental health issues, or incarceration. These challenges make them much more likely than their peers to drop out of college.

Wily Scholars are talented, resourceful young people who are navigating their four-year college experience on their own, without financial, academic or emotional support from their families.

The Wily Network provides a safety net composed of tangible and intangible benefits that college students with consistent and stable homes and families take for granted. The Wily program offers weekly trauma-sensitive clinical coaching, supplemental financial assistance, community-building support, and networking opportunities to help Scholars move from surviving to thriving. For more information, please visit www.thewilynetwork.org.

The Wily Network Clinical Scholar Coach will:

- Serve as the primary support for Wily Scholars (young people who, having persevered through such life challenges as aging out of foster care, homelessness, parental struggles with substance use and mental health issues or a persistent lack of family support are navigating college independently)
- Provide one-on-one coaching to students on campus, working toward Scholar well-being, community engagement, retention and graduation
- Develop strong working relationships with campus and community programs
- Serve as a liaison for Scholars and connect them to appropriate people and available campus resources
- Collaborate with Wily Network staff to provide psychoeducation and outreach to campus staff and community resources
- Be “on call.” A detailed on-call description will be provided during the interview process.

Minimum Qualifications:

- Passion for working collaboratively with college-age youth
- Ability to work sensitively with racially, culturally and economically diverse populations
- Clinical Social Worker (LCSW, LICSW, or equivalent)
- Ability to develop and maintain strong working relationships with Wily Scholars, campus staff, Wily Network team members, and community members
- Advanced training in and professional experience with crisis management, trauma-informed care, and strengths-based approaches
- Valid driver’s license and reliable vehicle

- Outstanding interpersonal and organizational skills
- Strong verbal and written communication skills, fluent in English
- Ability to manage multiple tasks/projects, develop creative solutions to problems

Desired Qualifications:

- Experience working on college campus and/or with college-aged youth
- Working knowledge of higher education policies and procedures
- Experience with program development and evaluation
- Excellent technology skills, including Microsoft Office Suite and Google Drive
- Resident of Greater Boston

Compensation: Based on Experience

How to Apply: Please email a resume and cover letter to careers@thewilynetwork.org with “Clinical Scholar Coach” in the subject line.

The Wily Network strives to create a workplace that reflects our commitment to racial, gender, and social equity. All identities will be welcomed, valued, and protected as a member of our Pack. We encourage people of color to apply to join our team.
