DEAR WILY PACK,

It is hard to put myself back in time to the Monday evening in January when I walked confidently into our Annual Meeting to celebrate the 5th Anniversary of the Wily Network. In the intervening months, our world has changed dramatically. I hope that you and your loved ones are managing the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic.

COVID-19 Spotlight

Your willingness to lean in during this critical time has been inspiring. Thanks to the generosity of over 236 donors, the Wily Network has raised sufficient funds that have allowed us to support Wily Scholars through the first 100 days of this crisis. As we approach the next 100 days, we are going to need both financial assistance and support to help students find jobs for the summer and upon graduation. Please reach out to lend a hand.

Now back to celebrating how far we’ve come. We simply could not have imagined five years ago where we would be today (I guess that is now true on many levels). I could not be more grateful to know such spectacular Scholars, dedicated professionals and inspiring supporters. Thank you all for making this dream come true.

In 2019, we raised more than $964,000, with 40 of our 50 Scholars supported through the Fund-A-Scholar program. Over the next five years, we will need to be steadfast in our effort to identify more Scholars who have achieved so much, are working so diligently, and have so much at stake. We want to provide a safety net for as many students as possible. With your support and ambassadorship, we can take care of our Pack.

With gratitude,

Judi Alperin King
Founder and Executive Director

Our Mission

Wily Scholars are promising students who are experiencing life challenges such as homelessness or foster care, or whose parents may be deceased, dealing with addiction, mental health issues, or incarceration.

- Wily works to ensure Scholars have the tools and networks necessary to thrive in four-year residential colleges.
- Wily strives to empower Scholars to transition successfully into post-college life and become vibrant members of their communities.

The Wily Network provides a critical safety net for these Scholars as they navigate college on their own. The Wily program offers weekly clinical coaching, financial assistance, community-building support, and networking opportunities to help them move from surviving to thriving.

Our Donors

We established our five Core Values in 2019 and incorporated them throughout this report. You’ll find them highlighted in blue and listed on page 18.

WILY PARTNER COLLEGES
We are a listening/learning organization. We work collaboratively with the 11 colleges and universities our current 55 Wily Scholars attend. Five of these schools are official Partner Colleges. As we grow, we plan to expand the number of schools we can call Partners.

Our arrangements with Partner Colleges reflect a mutual understanding and commitment to student success. These partnerships facilitate our work with students and strengthen our joint efforts to support Wily Scholars as they work toward graduation and prepare for post-college life.

Our partnerships with colleges, first and foremost, benefit Wily Scholars. Both the colleges and Wily benefit as well.

BENEFITS for the Partner College:

- Recognizes efforts to address a challenging national issue—students in need of support are no longer invisible.
- Creates success—the expectation is for every student to graduate and be prepared to engage in next steps.
- Maximizes returns on the university’s financial investment—partnership improves student retention.
- Augments campus resources—the partnership addresses the higher level of support required for this student group.
- Raises awareness of campus resources—ensures students know about the services available and makes them more likely to fully utilize them (housing, career center, etc.).
- Provides services the school cannot—schools typically do not provide the key components of the Wily program.
- Campus administrators cross-check Scholar referrals and make referrals directly to Wily staff.
- A larger group of Scholars on each campus creates a Wily peer community.
- Concentration of students on each partner campus means clinical coaches have fewer transitions during their day.
- Partner Colleges assign a campus liaison to Wily who serves as our point person for referrals and communications.
- Provides services the school cannot—schools typically do not provide the key components of the Wily program.

PARTNER PERSPECTIVES
This year’s Spotlight offers a chance to see Wily from the perspective of a Partner College and features Boston College (10 Scholars), Northeastern University (17 Scholars) and Massachusetts Institute of Technology (12 Scholars). Middlebury and UMass Boston are also Partner Colleges. Three of our campus liaisons shared their thoughts about Wily:

Massachusetts Institute of Technology
For MIT, our partnership with Wily has been a dream come true. To have a team of such caring, competent, and skilled coaches be available to students, at no cost, seven days a week, is an unparalleled resource. For the group of Wily Scholars at MIT who receive their help, the sense of community, emotional support, guidance, and advocacy is a lifeline.

Moreover, the tangible resources that Wily provides students ensure that the Wily Scholars do not have to struggle to cover basic needs and critical expenses. For MIT employees, the clinical coaches of Wily are key thought partners and valued colleagues in our efforts to support our shared students. What they provide to our Scholars, our students, is a comprehensive array of services that are flexible and consumeristically responsive to students’ real-time and changing needs. A rare gem of a program, Wily’s partnership has been a true gift to MIT. —Miri Skolnik

Northeastern University
Perhaps the most important benefit is that students have an advocate who is not affiliated with the university. As much as we can earn students’ trust, there may be certain lines they do not want to cross or certain information they do not want to disclose out of fear about how that disclosure might impact their ability to stay at the university. Our Wily partners have been a great resource in that students can share their biggest worries, and they trust their coaches to bring important and relevant information to us in a manner that protects their privacy and humanity.

We have also benefited from the wealth of experience that Wily coaches bring with them, particularly their understanding of counseling and ways to relate with students who have a history of trauma. Last year, Kat ran a terrific training for our staff on this topic.

Finally, we have greatly benefited from knowing that we can pick up the phone and call Wily with concerns about students, especially when those concerns lie outside our ability to support the student. The collaboration and creative problem solving that result have made a world of difference for our students. —Eric Nguyen

Boston College
One of the benefits that I’ve seen, is that the students take advantage of our space, which is located in a house. The students are comfortable and feel at home, we call it our “No Judgment Zone.” Second, the Wily Coach, Madjeen Lorthe, is a great person to work with. The students are comfortable with her presence—she brings joy to our office when she arrives. Madjeen’s infectious smile is welcomed every time she arrives to meet with her students. They trust her and she’s been very supportive. She’s always checking in on them and does her best to meet their needs accordingly. That makes us feel proud knowing that they are comfortable with her. It’s a pleasure working with Madjeen! —Yvonne McBarnett

COVID-19 Spotlight
Thank you to all of our Partner Colleges for responding quickly and effectively during this stressful period for Wily Scholars. Your assistance in finding dorm space on each campus for Scholars—without the students having to explain their situation—made this transition as smooth as possible.
THE WILY PROGRAM
We believe in the power of deep, trusting relationships. With Wily by their side, Scholars can keep pace with their peers academically, despite the challenges they face while navigating college. Scholars’ personal success depends on the crucial ingredients of the Wily program: consistent emotional and financial support, a community on which they can rely, and opportunities to network that ensure they build the skills needed for an independent future.

1. Clinical Coaching
Scholars and clinically trained coaches form authentic and meaningful relationships in which students feel both validated and accountable. Students and coaches meet weekly, on campus, to collaborate, identify, and work toward goals. Additionally, coaches are available 24/7 when more support is needed or crises arise.

2. Supplemental Financial Support
Worry over food security, health care and overall financial stability is a constant for Wily Scholars, with negative impacts on their emotional well-being. To enable students to focus on academics, Wily provides a monthly stipend as well as financial assistance to cover gaps in their budgets for both expected and unexpected necessities.

3. Community Building and Networking
In addition to our cornerstone Community Day events and holiday gatherings, Wily holds monthly Dining Out with Wily dinners, as well as frequent meet-ups for museum tours, movies or bowling. Through these opportunities, Scholars develop peer relationships and build a community where they feel accepted and know that they belong.

Wily connects Scholars to professionals in a wide variety of fields to cultivate their interests, polish their skills, and generate summer internship and career opportunities that will lead to post-graduate success.

COVID-19 Spotlight
As we all know, responding responsibly during the COVID-19 global pandemic includes social distancing. At Wily, we suddenly needed to make drastic changes to our programs after long relying on face-to-face interactions to provide opportunities for our Pack to connect. Still, we found ways to stay Wily:

- Our monthly newsletters became twice-weekly, with content ranging from recognizing mental health needs to suggestions for at-home entertainment, including the creation of a Book Club.
- Thanks to Zoom and UberEats, 18 Scholars and 8 staff members attended our first of many virtual dinners.
- Our group chat app featured daily games with burning questions such as “Waffles or pancakes?” leading to passionate debates.

Like most of the world, we are still adjusting to the “new normal” that faces our community, but our consistent contact with Scholars reminds them that we—their Pack—are there for them, no matter where, no matter what.

WILY COMMUNITY DAYS 2019

In 2019, Scholars, coaches and staff were fortunate to come together for two Wily Community Day celebrations. These fall and spring events have become a foundation of our programming. Because each year we say goodbye to our graduates and welcome new faces, it is essential to create opportunities for social interaction and meaningful connection. Scholars relish the opportunity to gather with their peers from other schools. On both occasions, we enjoyed a great turnout, beautiful weather, fun games and activities (some challenging, some relaxing), and delicious meals. Each Community Day reinforces and strengthens the relationships in our Pack, providing a powerful resource for Scholars each other.

Thank You to Kyla

Kyla Truman graduated from MIT in 2017 and is a “would be,” now honorary, Wily Scholar. Sadly, we missed the opportunity to know Kyla as a student. We met her after she had made her way through school on her own. Since graduating, Kyla has worked as a Wily spokesperson, helping spread the word to prospective supporters about the need for and impact of the Wily program. This summer we’ll wish Kyla good luck as she begins medical school. Thank you Kyla! You will always be part of our Pack.

2nd Annual Wily Speaker Series: An Evening to Learn and Grow

Thank you to the Ilene Beal Charitable Foundation for sponsoring our 2nd Annual Speaker Series: An Evening to Learn and Grow at Wellesley College on February 4, 2020.

More than 150 guests were inspired by keynote speaker James Morton’s story, one of beating the odds through sheer determination and giving back by serving others. James spoke about how his personal history influenced him to dedicate his life to fighting systemic injustices.

This year’s program, Everyone has a story. What’s yours? was moderated by MIT ‘20 Scholar Saffron Deasey who taught us the value of learning how to share (and not share) different parts of our personal story.

“What you see, our stories fuel our passions. Our stories make us who we are. They define what we stand for, and what we consider to be important to us. Our stories guide our work. They ground us, they inspire us, and they challenge us to do better.”

James Morton
President and CEO of the YMCA of Greater Boston

2020 Wily Pack Award

The 2020 Wily Pack Award was presented in honor of Stevie and David Spina, who joined our Pack in a most unexpected fashion. They read about us in the Boston Herald and called to say, “what can we do?” They are open to having genuine conversations, willing to teach us the lessons we need to learn, and trust us to implement the program faithfully. We call them designer benefactors.

The Wily Pack Award is given to a Wily Scholar who has embraced all that the Wily Network offers, making the most of the resources and opportunities available. This year’s Pack Award was presented to Northeastern ‘20 Scholar Isaiah Myers.

Isiah recounted some of the challenging situations he experienced during his childhood and the positive impact the Wily Network has had on his college experience. He gave us insight into the depth of his relationship with his coach, Kat Castañeda Macdonald.

“My story is mine, I can tell it however I want. And it’s OK if it changes with time and experience.” Saffron, Scholar, MIT ‘20

The Ilene Beal Charitable Foundation

Thank you to the Ilene Beal Charitable Foundation for sponsoring the 2nd Annual Wily Speaker Series.

Ilene Beal was a female pioneer who achieved great professional success and had a major impact in the Boston banking world beginning in 1970 through 1999. She spent the bulk of her professional career with BayBanks, rising through the ranks to become an Executive Vice President and the Chairman’s right hand. Pioneering a path up the corporate ladder for women in the 1970s, Ilene Beal made it to the top executive tiers in New England banking while mentoring business associates and undergraduates from her alma mater, Wellesley College.

Ilene was a dedicated and meticulous professional with a big heart who did everything she could to support, mentor, and encourage other women to follow their dreams and passions, and never feel limited by other people’s views about women’s roles. She often said women can and should do whatever they want professionally.

“I was raised to believe I could do anything. If I broke a toy, I learned how to fix it.”

Ilene died at the age of 69 on August 1, 2015 after a long and valiant battle against cancer. Her legacy lives on through her friends and colleagues, and the work of the Ilene Beal Charitable Foundation.

“Stevie and David Spina were immediately energized with Wily’s concept of assisting college students who are on their own. College success requires support and coaching. The Wily Network is designed to help the students feel cared for and supported and we wanted to support ‘the Pack.’ We believe the Wily leadership team is working effectively with both students and colleges to make the college experience successful, academically and personally.”

THE FUND-A-SCHOLAR PROGRAM

Wily Scholars are the heart of our mission. The cornerstone of our fundraising paradigm is the Fund-A-Scholar program, which provides multi-year funding to ensure Wily's sustainability, a primary focus in our fifth year of fundraising. Our Fund-A-Scholar donors make a multi-year pledge of $50,000 and commit to donating $12,500 for four consecutive years, which funds the full Wily program for one student.

We currently have a waiting list of students eligible to become Wily Scholars. The Fund-A-Scholar program ensures that we can meet the needs of current Wily Scholars through graduation and continue to enroll new Scholars each year.

COVID-19 Spotlight

"I just wanted to say, I don't know what I'd do without the Wily Network. Times like these remind me of how lucky I am to have connected with you and the program four years ago. I feel completely safe during this insane time knowing I have Wily. My heart goes out to the students and staff will have a significant impact."

FUND-A-PACK DONOR SPOTLIGHT

Debbi and Mike Young first learned about Wily in the fall of 2018. From the beginning, their passion for Wily and understanding of the mission were genuine. Debbi and Mike just got it—and they've been sharing our story with others ever since. No matter where they are, Debbi and Mike are always there for Wily—to lend an ear, help us strategize and plan for the future, and to support the program with their commitment to Fund-A-Pack.

We asked Debbi and Mike a few questions about their involvement with Wily:

How did you first hear about Wily?

We were looking for a non-profit that would help people in vulnerable situations make it to the "other side" and break the cycle of poverty.

What drew you to Wily?

Having been there to support our daughters through college, both emotionally and financially, we immediately understood the impact Wily can have on these incredible students. The fact that they have managed to overcome so many obstacles and been accepted to top colleges and universities—on their own—is incredibly impressive. We wanted to help these amazing young people by giving them the extra resources and support they need so that they will stay in college and achieve their goals.

What do you think we could be doing to connect with more donors like you?

Debbi and Mike have been ambassadors for Wily. We tell our friends and family how impressed we are with the Wily mission. Wily has a compelling story and needs to be told and retold. They will appreciate the Wily mission. With your support and the support of other Fund-A-Pack donors, we can continue to do what we do.

What is your vision and hope for Wily five years from now?

We were fortunate to be able to review the Wily strategic plan and feel you are asking the right questions and have the right plan. We will continue to support more Wily Scholars in the Boston area and make sure the Wily message continues to be shared.

What would you say to prospective FAS donors to encourage them to donate?

Make sure that the potential donors know how their contribution will reach the students. At first, we didn't understand that half of the funds are used to cover the cost of one coach. Once Judi explained how Fund-A-Scholar works, we realized that the Clinical Coach plays a primary role in the Scholar’s support system and is crucial to their college success. Sharing success stories about Wily Scholars and enabling potential and current donors to meet students and staff will have a significant impact.

How do you tell our story and what do you say about Wily to your friends and family?

We tell our friends and family how impressed we are with the students and the people who work at Wily. Knowing that coaches have personally helped students move into their dorms and how deeply they connect with Wily Scholars is inspiring. We know how much we supported our girls before, during and after college and we know that when we contribute to Wily, we are directly helping a well-deserving student.

3. Planning for the future. Together with all who support our work, we can meet the needs of Scholars today and throughout their college careers.

The Wily Network celebrated our 5th Anniversary on January 13th, 2020, at the Annual Meeting of the Board. We proudly entered our next phase of growth with a solid financial base and set realistic goals for our next five years. Our financial goals and growth plan go hand in hand. We will enroll each new Scholar only when we know we can commit to providing the full Wily Network program through college graduation. As of June 1, 2020, we are working with 55 Scholars. With your help, we will be working with 112 students by 2024. We invite you to take a minute to see how Wily has grown since we began this work in 2015.

the strength of our pack

volunteer /ˈværəntər/ Verb
Synonyms: dedicate, devote, spend time
1. Lead. Become a Care Package Chair and spearhead an event for Wily.
2. Give. Make a difference in a Scholar’s life as a holiday and birthday Gift Giver.
3. Connect. Support Scholars by providing career advice and professional networking opportunities.

Our Volunteers are Wily! Wily volunteer programs are a great way to get connected with our Scholars. Volunteer through one of the programs.

GIFT GIVING PROGRAM
Birthdays, holidays, and graduation can be difficult for Wily Scholars. Our Gift Giving Program pairs Scholars with volunteers who provide personalized gifts on special occasions until they graduate from college.

“I remember when I got my first birthday gifts from Wily, and I honestly, in that moment I was like, this is way too good to be true because, why am I getting these? But they actually make such a world of difference. It’s so nice to see this whole package made just for you and wrapped up nicely. And I got concert tickets, and it was really wonderful. I wasn’t used to getting so many nice gifts that were curated just for me.”

INTRODUCTION EVENT
One of the ways you can support our work is to introduce the Wily Network to your family, friends and colleagues by hosting an Intro to Wily event at your home or office. Intro events help us raise awareness about the challenges our Scholars face and the work we do to support them.

Sharlisse Cai Perry, Nancy Doyle and Melissa Smith prep spring exam care packages.

CAREER NETWORKING
Volunteers can connect with Wily Scholars to help them navigate the professional world. Networking opportunities enable Scholars to develop lifelong relationships with professionals outside the college community.

Judi,
Wow, I am just lost for words. I just finished meeting with Aimee and it’s as if I met myself from the future... Meeting her was truly a phenomenal, even life changing experience and I cannot thank you enough for introducing us!!! I found so much confirmation and new motivation, I really feel like a new & empowered woman. Words do not describe how thankful I really am for you and Wily.
